PUBLIC NOTICE

FROM: George A. Schutter, III
Chief Procurement Officer of the District of Columbia
Director, Office of Contracting and Procurement

DATE: April 2, 2018

RE: Review of Procurement Activities During the Second-Quarter of FY2018 by the Procurement Accountability Review Board

Under Sections V and VII of Mayor's Order 2018-019, the Procurement Accountability Review Board is required to convene at least quarterly at the call of the chairperson to review the following procurement matters: (1) contracts requiring retroactive approval by the Council of the District of Columbia, (2) decisions by the Contract Appeals Board or a court that overturn or invalidate a contracting action taken by the District, (3) audit findings, and (4) other procurement matters specifically referred to the Board. Several contracts requiring retroactive approval were referred to the Board during the end of the second-quarter of Fiscal Year 2018 (January 1, 2018 through March 31, 2018). Each of these contracts will be vetted and reviewed at the PARB's next meeting. Additionally, no member of the Board requested that a meeting be convened to review discretionary procurement activities during that time.

Accordingly, the Chief Procurement Officer hereby gives notice that no meeting of the Procurement Accountability Review Board was convened during the period from January 1, 2018 through March 31, 2018.
