PO592610	10/17/2018	RELAY GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDU	SELs start their work by exploring the six pillars of effective leadership of exceptional learners- Cultural Leadership, Programmatic Leadership, Personal Leadership, Data-Driven Leadership, Instructional Leadership, and Policy Leadership. This journey begins with setting a vision for excellence of what it means to drive outcomes for exceptional learners and using that vision to define what it means to embody a unit hencially inclusive school culture. At the core of this work is an examination of the mindsets, skills, and disposition that drive the existence of this culture. SELs will explore how their day-to-day duties and personal leadership skills impact their ability to be a driver of outcomes. Those duties include a focus on two high-leverage areas that drive those outcomes: data-driven instruction and data and instructional coaching. With that as the goal, participants build their instructional expertise in Universal Design for Learning, and Observation and Feedback and round out their time focused on understanding broad MTSS systems for academics and behavior and how to use those systems to coach teachers around regular analysis and response to classroom-level data. 			project. Wall murals and displays to enhance the physical climate and create an experience with the school's culture. In response to the current trends around social and emotional learning, we will work with a vendor to create Halls That Inspire. Students and staff will collaborate to develop core values, promote the SEL competencies and continue rebranding the school. Once accomplished, the vendors will design hallway murals that represent the core values, SEL competencies and brand in an artistic and symbolic way. These murals will serve as a daily reminder of what our school is working to achieve while transforming the currently dilapidated walls that our children walk through into symbols of hope, creativity, and most importantly, ownership over their own school environment. Our students' perceptions of the school will be immediately influenced as they see the walls transform from the bleak environment to one that immediately welcomes them and is focused on positivity and learning. School participation will increase because the school will have one central project that everyone can rally around and build community through. Because the designs will be developed with our students, their identification as a member of our school community will improve and increase. Finally, the use of self-regulation strategies will be easily implemented as students become invested in the project and work to earn opportunities to support this work. This initiative will culminate in a large-scale family event called 'Family Paint Night'. This event will provide our school community the opportunity to foster a safe, supported, and effective learning environment. The staff/family connection cultivated during this event will better inform our teachers on how to focus on the 'whole child'. DCPS CONTACT: Kennard Branch Garfield Elementary School Phone: 1(202)698-1600

PO584761-V2	9/13/2018	URBAN ONE INC.	The District of Columbia Government, DC Health, Health Regulation and Licensing Administration (HRLA), Pharmaceutical Control Division (PCD) seeks radio station contractors for a radio media campaign. This media campaign is recommended by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).  The overall goal of the radio media campaign is to reduce the use of prescription opioid, reduce the number of opioid-related overdose deaths and increase the number of naloxone kits distributed in the District of Columbia, through culturally and linguistically appealing radio public service announcements. The radio media campaign objectives are to heighten awareness of prescription opioid usage in the District, prevent opioid-related overdose deaths, and to educate the public on how naloxone can reverse an opioid-related overdose.	0409 CONTRACTUAL SERVICES - OTHER	DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH	$30,000.00
